

$\nabla$ Pick one of the people on the road to describe:

| Dress | Age | Sex | SkinColor | PhysicalStature orConditions | Features |
|-------|-----|-----|---------------|--------------------------------------|----------|
|       |     |     |               |                                      |          |
|       |     |     |               |                                      |          |
|       |     |     |               |                                      |          |
|       |     |     |               |                                      |          |

| $\nabla$ | ∇ Why This Person Joined A March |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|----------|----------------------------------|--|--|--|--|--|--|
|          |                                  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|          |                                  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|          |                                  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|          |                                  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|          |                                  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

ESSAYS

You choose:

- ∇ Choose one of the places or organizations listed on Freedom Road. Find out about the organization or about the events that happened in that city. Write a 300-word essay about your findings.
- ∇ The quote at the end of Freedom Road asks, "What are you doing for others?" Write a short essay about the ways you are helping others or the ways you could help others.

PHOTO GALLERY

∇ Choose one of the photographs on the wall. Write a short paragraph or poem describing the photo and how you feel about it.